

Policy and Advocacy Manager (Maternity leave position)

Full time

Box Hill Location

Inclusive Disability Department

Do you want to advocate for a just and compassionate world where all people can access their rights and achieve their full potential?

Are you willing to help amplify the voice of people with disabilities who live in some of the world's poorest communities?

CBM Australia's Policy and Advocacy team takes the lead in engaging the Australian development sector and government on disability inclusive development issues. We aim to foster a strong and enduring commitment to disability inclusion from these stakeholders in order to ensure that the rights of people with disabilities are addressed in all international development and humanitarian policy and programs. Our advocacy is undertaken to amplify, not replace, the voices of people with disabilities in developing countries so we work in close partnership with disabled persons organisations and self-advocates. We also advocate, in partnership with other organisations in the sector, for the Australian Government to increase the scale and effectiveness of the Australian aid program.

We are looking for someone who has advanced policy advocacy skills as well as the capacity to lead a small and committed team while our current manager is on maternity leave. If you think you fit the bill, we'd love to hear from you!

The successful candidate will have:

- Demonstrated experience in developing, implementing and evaluating innovative and effective advocacy and community engagement strategies and approaches
- Knowledge of international development trends and context and understanding of the Australian aid Sector
- Knowledge / experience of disability and principles and practice of disability inclusion
- Knowledge / experience in managing and coaching a small and committed team
- Exceptional skills in communication and collaboration with a wide variety of stakeholders.

Consistent with our commitment to the principle of "Nothing about us without us" potential candidates who have a disability are strongly encouraged to apply.

CBM Australia wants to recognise and reward our staff and can offer a number of attractive benefits: salary packaging, flexible working conditions, and professional development opportunities.
