Executive Officer, Australian Disability and Development Consortium

0.6 Parental Leave position (12 month contract)

Box Hill, Melbourne Location

About us

The Australian Disability and Development Consortium (ADDC) is a network of over 600 members including Australian international development agencies, managing contractors, academic institutions and disabled people’s organisations acting as a collective voice calling for the inclusion of people with disabilities across the Australian international development sector. Working from a national platform for international disability advocacy and action shaped by the ADDC members, ADDC plays a key role in advocating for disability-inclusive development be a priority cross-cutting theme for all Australian international development efforts.

The ADDC Secretariat is hosted by CBM Australia, an international Christian development organisation, committed to improving the quality of life of persons with disabilities in the poorest countries of the world. CBM Australia partners with government and non-government organisations with the aim of building and promoting an inclusive world in which all persons with disabilities enjoy their human rights and achieve their full potential. CBM Australia is a key member of the CBM global network and has in its remit strong field programming and advocacy work as well as fundraising.

About the role
